

MARKET UPDATE – FAVOURABLE COURT RULING

Metminco Limited ("Metminco" or the "Company") (ASX: MNC; AIM: MNC) is pleased to announce that on 6th August 2014 the Chilean Constitutional Tribunal ("Tribunal") dismissed the defences of the surface title holder at its 100% owned Mollacas Copper Leach Project and declared the Company's lawsuit to be admissible. The Supreme Court proceedings, announced on 1 July 2014, will remain suspended while the Tribunal considers Metminco's case.

The Company is seeking to overturn a ruling by the Court of Appeal of the IV Region, Chile (the "Court of Appeal"), announced on 28 March 2014, that the Company's First Easement Extension (the "First Extension") over surface titles held by the land holder, which would have enabled the Company to engage in mining activities at Mollacas, was invalid.

Constitutional Tribunal of Chile

Minera Hampton Chile Limitada ("MHC"), Metminco's wholly owned subsidiary, appealed to the Tribunal on the grounds that the Court of Appeal incorrectly interpreted various Civil and Mining Codes in making its ruling.

Should the Tribunal rule in favour of MHC, then, among other matters, the Chilean courts will not be able to rely on the Court of Appeal's interpretation of Civil and Mining Codes, in particular Mining Code 15 on which the Court of Appeal relied when it determined that the extension of an easement to permit mining activities cannot be granted without the surface title holder's permission should a 'plantation' exist in the specified area.

Supreme Court of Chile

MHC is also appealing a determination by a review panel of the Supreme Court not to allow MHC to appeal to the Supreme Court.

In making its determination the review panel of the Supreme Court considered only one of the five grounds of MHC's appeal and did not consider the rules of evidence and the interpretation of the application of Civil and Mining Codes followed by the Court of Appeal in accepting the surface title holder's assertions that a plantation existed on the land in 2007 when the First Extension was lodged. Under Chilean law a review panel of the Supreme Court is required to address all arguments before making a determination.

Land Holdings and Access Rights

The Company holds title to 20 Exploitation Concessions covering the Mollacas deposit and surrounding area, and owns 179 ha of land adjacent to the proposed open pit operation, which is located on private land. The infrastructure for the mining operation will be located on Company owned land. In addition, Metminco also owns water rights to approximately 175 litres/sec from two canals, albeit that the estimated water usage for the mining operation will be 40 litres/sec.
